Recycling Commission Member Needed!

Hear ye, hear ye! Are you driven by a sense of community responsibility? Are you a recycling devotee and practitioner? Are you looking for the companionship that comes from working with your friends and neighbors? Then Willistown's Recycling Commission might be for you! The Recycling Commission meets monthly and plans recycling events and education and promotes public awareness of the benefits of recycling.

Interested? Please send your resume and a cover letter to Dave Burman,

Township Manager, at dburman@willistown.pa.us.

Grants Fund Events Based on YOUR Recycling!

These events are provided free of charge to Willistown residents only and are paid for through Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection Recycling Performance Grants based on the amount our community recycles annually. Our recycling grant applications were written for many years by Jim Tate. We thank our newest Commission member, Susan Vogel, for taking on the job!
